ASSET

Constructed in 2008 as corporate headquarters for BDI Pharma, 120 Research Drive is a state-of-the-art 30,497 square foot Class A office/warehouse facility. Bathed in natural light, the foyer and interior hallways lead to over 54 offices and multiple conference rooms. The office component includes a well designed floor plan accommodating employees and executive staff on two levels. Structural precast panels enclosing the warehouse are designed for ease of expansion and can be unbolted and moved to accommodate a wide variety of increased square footages. A Baldor 300kw generator provides uninterrupted reliable service for the entire facility. Cold storage and furniture could be negotiated with the sale.

LOCATION

120 Research Drive is located within the Carolina Research Park, a well-maintained and secluded home to a multitude of innovative companies. The Research Park boasts a 15 acre lake and sits adjacent the 18-hole Spur at Northwoods golf course. The Park is conveniently located off I-77 and approximately 7 miles from the epicenter of Columbia, SC. Three interstates (I-77, I-20, and I-26,) all within 15 minutes, connect residents, customers, and employees to all parts of South Carolina. Its central location within the state affords access to Charlotte (94 miles,) Greenville (90 miles,) Charleston (115 miles,) beaches and mountains all in a few short hours.

QUALITY OF LIFE

Columbia, SC has most amenities typical of larger cities yet maintains a more intimate feel. Offering a low cost of living and mild climate, its designation as state capital and county seat ensure employment is robust and stable. Many sections of Columbia have seen tremendous growth over the last decade, none more prevalent than downtown's "Vista" which is home to numerous restaurants, bars, galleries and shops. Located upon the confluence of the Broad and Saluda Rivers, Columbia offers numerous outdoor recreational opportunities including fishing, hiking, boating and floating. Nearby Lake Murray, a 50,000 acre hydroelectric recreational lake with over 500 miles of shoreline, offers respite from the hustle and bustle of downtown activity.
